

Civil Society Summit

Does NAFTA Serve the Public Interest?

Friday, September 22, 2017

10:30am - 11:30am

Public action In front of Parliament Hill, at the gate in front near Wellington St.

1:00pm - 4:00pm

Does NAFTA Serve the Public Interest? Quadri-national Exchange Panels* (open to the public)
University of Ottawa, Huguette Labelle Room 112 in Tabaret Hall, 550 Cumberland St.

PROGRAM

Civil Society Panel

Introduction: Alain Croteau - Director, United Steelworkers (USW) Quebec, and Vice President, Fédération des travailleurs et travailleuses du Québec (FTQ)

Presenters:

- Pamela Palmater (Associate Professor, Ryerson University) on Indigenous issues and human rights
- Pedro Torres (President of ANEC, Asociación Nacional de Empresas Comercializadoras, Mexico) on agriculture
- Melinda St. Louis (Director of International Campaigns, Public Citizen's Trade Watch) on ISDS

Moderator: Caroline Senneville - Vice President, Confédération des syndicats nationaux (CSN)

Legislators Panel

Introduction: Lana Payne - Atlantic Director, Unifor

Presenters:

- Marcy Kaptur - Democratic Congresswoman (USA)
- Amir Khadir - Member of the National Assembly, Québec (Québec Solidaire)
- Martine Ouellet - Member of the National Assembly (Parti Québécois) and Leader of the Bloc Québécois
- Tracey Ramsey - Member of Parliament (NDP)
- Mario Delgado - Senator (Morena, Mexico)

Moderator: Larry Brown - President, National Union of Public and General Employees (NUPGE) and Co-Chair of the Trade Justice Network

4:00pm - 5:00pm	Digital rights event - University of Ottawa Room TBD
5:00pm - 7:00pm	Social event -- The Royal Oak (161 Laurier Ave E.)

* Interpretation in French and Spanish available. This event is wheelchair accessible.

The summit is organized by the following coalitions: Common Frontiers, Council of Canadians, Réseau québécois sur l'intégration continentale (RQIC), and the Trade Justice Network.

This event is made possible by the generous support from: Canadian Labour Congress, Canadian Union of Public and General Employees (CUPE), Canadian Union of Postal Workers (CUPW), Communications Workers of America (CWA) Canada, National Union of Public and General Employees (NUPGE), People's Social Forum, Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC), Réseau québécois sur l'intégration continentale (RQIC) and its member groups, and Unifor.